Vaclav Havel Park in Leitmeritz. The park is an oasis of calmness in the town. Opened in July 2008, the park covers an area of 8,401 square meters and there are dozens of plant species. The dominant feature of the park are two lakes and a wooden bridge. Local wedding guests love taking pictures in the park. In the park you can also visit a café with a pleasant seating. The result of cooperation between the Town of Litomerice and Foundation Kalich is a bronze bust of the first Czech president Vaclav Havel. The author of the bust is a local sculptor Alzbeta Kumstátová. The work was officially unveiled with the participation of Dagmar Havel and several hundred people in 2012, which was only a few months after the former Czech president Havel died.
