

Town Litomeřice

Litomeřice - the Garden of Bohemia

The region got the name the Garden of Bohemia in the 17 th century. There on confluence of the river Labe and Ohře, in pictorial areas of České středohoří. one of the most beautiful Czech town, the royal town Litomeřice, where at the present time lives about 25 000 inhabitants. Historical glory of royal Litomeřice remind you Gothic, Renaissance and Baroque buildings.

Out of the 256 buildings, 104 of them are listed as cultural monuments in the national register, and you wil find almost all of them in the historic core of the town, which is surrounded in large part by the preserved Gothic fortifications. In Litomeřice you can visit many churches, several galleries and more. There lived our famous poet Karel Hynek Mácha. Town Litomeřice is not only town with rich history, but also town with culture and sport. Do not forget our information centre.